

Deniz Motevaseli

imdb.com

Deniz Motevaseli is an Iranian actress and set designer, born in Tehran, Iran. She has Persian and Turkish ancestry. She earned her bachelor's degree in Architecture and graduated with a Master's degree in Filmmaking from Tehran University of Applied Sciences. She began her career in theater.

IMDb

In 2019, she gained recognition for her role as Mahsa in the Iranian television series "The Monster" (Hayoula), directed by Mehran Modiri.

YouTube

In addition to acting, Motevaseli has worked as a set designer, leveraging her architectural background to enhance the visual storytelling of various productions.

She is also involved in international film festivals, serving as the Head of International Relations and Cultural Programming at the AmiCorti International Film Festival. In this role, she manages relationships with artists, cultural institutions, and other international festivals, and programs cultural activities involving international guests.

Amicorti

For professional inquiries, she can be contacted at:

- Phone: +39 0171 325185
- Email: info@novavoxfilm.com